Many trade fairs are postponed or cancelled

The new dates at a glance

The corona pandemic is forcing many trade fair organisers from the care and health sector to cancel or postpone their planned dates. We have compiled the most important dates for you.

SALMED in Poznan (Poland)

Poland's largest trade show for medical technology has been postponed to later this summer from 1 to 3 September, 2020.

Altenpflege geriatric care fair in Hannover (Germany)

The leading trade fair for the nursing care sector has now also cancelled its make-up date in June. The next edition of the fair is scheduled to take place again next year from 13-15 April 2021 in Nuremberg, Germany. Stieglmeyer is looking forward to welcoming all visitors then.

DMEA in Berlin (Germany)

The digital health fair in Berlin has been postponed by two months to June 16-18, 2020. Stieglmeyer will not participate on this date.

Integra in Wels (Austria)

The care and rehabilitation fair planned for April has been cancelled. A new date has not yet been set, according to the website.

OTWorld in Leipzig (Germany)

The industry meeting for the supply of medical aids has been postponed to the period from 27 to 30 October 2020.

Africa Health in Johannesburg (South Africa)

The organisers have decided to push back the dates for the African healthcare show to 13-15 October 2020.

Pflege Plus in Stuttgart (Germany)

The nursing care trade fair has been cancelled and will regularly take place again in two years' time from 17 to 19 May 2022.

According to the Internet, the sleep industry trade fair ABK Open in Halle/Westphalia, Germany (July 1-2, 2020) and Rehacare in Düsseldorf, Germany (September 23-26, 2020) are currently still holding on to their planned dates.

Stieglmeyer and Burmeier will, of course, also be available for consultation with all customers and interested parties outside the trade fairs. Simply contact your usual representatives by e-mail or telephone or visit our websites www.stieglmeyer.com or www.burmeier.com and select a contact person from the "Contact" menu.
